1/22/15

Your Honor, I hope that by the time this letter reaches you, your in the best of health and sprits, also I would like to thank you for appointing me new counsel. However your Honor I believe that Mr. Montemarano is in possession of the discovery and the consensually recorded calls, which I haven't seen, or yet to hear. With trial in less than 60 day's. I really need them to be able to file the proper motions. Mr. Montemarano has had the discovery for several month's now. Your Honor I would really appreciate it if you could have Mr. Montemarano turn the discovery over to my new counselor. Your Honor, I would like to add that Mr. Montemarano waived both my preliminary and detention hearing without my consent. I have enclosed the letter written by Mr. Montemarano which states I agreed to the waiver, which did not. Your Honor, the letter states that I can have a preliminary hearing in the future, I would like to have one, and also a detention hearing asap. Your Honor I know that you are a very busy man and I do not mean to be a nuisance. Thanks again!!

P.S. I would appreciate it if the court would send me a docket report and have me put in for a status hearing

Sincerely

Cornell Brown

RE: United States v. Cornell Brown
No. 14-1807-TJS
Preliminary hearing deadline waiver

Dear Judge Sullivan:

Pursuant to the defense's discussions with Ms. Mittal on behalf of the government and with my client's agreement, please accept this letter as notice in satisfaction of F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(d). Mr. Brown will not assert his right to a preliminary hearing within fourteen days per F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c), without prejudice to his right to request such hearing at some point in the future. This letter also indicates the defense's consent and the parties' mutual stipulation to the existence of good cause for such general continuance.

Thank you for your attention to this.

Very truly yours,

/s/

Michael D. Montemarano
